TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 6, 1908.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3 or $5.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

☞In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that "The Mayor in addition at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation shall declare that all such dogs as above licensed shall be securely muzzled, and if any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force, or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes," and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

THE VIRGINIA PLATFORM.

Following is the platform in full as adopted by the Virginia State democratic convention in Richmond, on Thursday night. The democratic party of Virginia in convention assembled, heartily indorses the administration of Governor Claude A. Swanson and the other State officers, and challenges the most searching scrutiny as to their fidelity and devotion to the pledges which were made by them. After twenty-three years of undisturbed supremacy in the State, the democratic party of Virginia refers the public to a consistent record of honesty, efficiency and progress in administration and legislation, and the present resulting conditions of good order, good feeling and general prosperity represented in our history.

The State has not only met her financial obligations punctually, but has anticipated them. Her credit is as good as that of any government in the world. Her people, encouraged by stable conditions, moderate taxation fairly adjusted among all classes and wisely progressive leadership, give their attention more hopefully and earnestly than ever before to the development of our vast material resources and to the establishment of permanent general systems of good roads and public school. The democratic party is proud of the fact that without increasing the burden on the tax-payers more money is being used for public school purposes than ever before in Virginia, and that the pensions to the survivors of Confederate armies have steadily increased as the revenue and necessities of the State permitted. In these policies, as in other forward movements, the people of Virginia will continue until they stand equal with the most prosperous and advanced of our sister commonwealths, and until the opportunity for efficient practical and cheap education is put within the reach of every child in the State. To the promotion of these ends the democratic party of Virginia pledges itself, confident that the sagacity of the voters will forbid them from permitting any change from the political methods by which the State has prospered and advanced, enjoyed peace and won honor.

To the democrats of the union, soon to assemble in convention at Denver, the democracy of Virginia sends cordial greeting and assurance of Virginia's earnest support and electoral votes for the nominees for president and vice-president to be chosen there. We represent to them through our delegation the following resolutions, as expressing sentiments of the Virginia democracy, and respectfully ask consideration for them for inclusion in the party platform:

Resolved, by the democrats of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in convention assembled, that the republican party, which twelve years ago secured control of the federal government by the president's boast that it possessed the financial wisdom and conservatism of the country and by solemn promises to bring prosperity and to devise a safe and suitable currency system, having been in control of all branches of the government without interruption during twelve years, has proved that its boasts were false and has failed abjectly to fulfill its promises.

It has maintained a currency system which has forced on the country two disastrous panics within four years, in the face of conditions otherwise sound and wholesome, and has twice paralyzed our commerce. In its attempt to conciliate and further trick the substantial business interests universally demanding an improved and more elastic currency, and to hold the favor of the money monarchy it drove and juggled through in the last hours of the recent session of Congress a pitiful make-shift of currency legislation, absolutely useless, an insult to intelligence, an abortion born of confessed incompetence. The republican party, by its record on this great and urgent question, and by the commercial events of the last twelve years, is proved to be as incapable as it is cowardly, as false as it is slavish. It has presented itself as a fit subject for punishment and overthrow at the hands of the deceived and betrayed business people, and of the masses whose confidence it begged and has grossly forfeited.

Resolved, That the republican party, while forced to heed the general demand from all classes for revision of the tariff, has skulked from this issue by postponement and subterfuge, thereby giving conclusive evidence that it will continue the system, which makes a few enormously rich at the cost of the great body of citizenship. It practically proclaims that it will go on holding before the American workingman the bait of nominally high wages with a tariff arrangement and a currency system which periodically deprived him of employment, make earnings impossible for him and exhaust his small savings. Substantial growth and wealth cannot be maintained while enterprise is excited to fever one month and chilled to helplessness the next. Powerful artificial stimulation must be followed by weakness. To restore healthful condition revision of the tariff is required. Revision of the tariff must be intrusted to the friends of revision, not to those whose acts prove them to be its unrelenting foes.

We favor revision of the tariff as the only remedy of the trust evil, and that it be so levied as not to discriminate against any industry, class or section. We declare that the present tariff laws, enacted by the republican party, are in the interest of the few and against the good of the people, and in our opinion the tariff is and ought to be made most prominent, as it is the most vital issue in the pending campaign. We denounce the passage by the republican House of Representatives of what is known as the Crumpacker bill, the avowed and obvious purpose of which is to reduce the representation of the southern states of the union in the lower house of Congress and the electoral college. This attempt to revive dead and baleful race and sectional animosities in any part of our country is criminal, and means confusion and distraction of business and return to an era in our history which was of incalculable harm to north and south, east and west.

Resolved, That we further denounce the executive usurpation of legislative and judicial functions, whether veiled under the guise of executive construction of existing laws or whether it takes refuge in the traditional tyrant's plea of necessity or superior wisdom. We look upon the executive usurpation of the present republican administration as wild assaults upon the rights of States. These persistent encroachments against the right of the commonwealths constituting his republic, by the various branches of the Federal government as represented by republican methods, policies and practices, menace the foundations on which we are established. They should be resented by every thoughtful American and rebuked and resisted at the polls by all who know that the real strength of the republic is the maintenance of the lines separating judicial and legislative functions, and in careful respect for the rights of the States, and the personal liberty of the individual. Sovereign statehood and American manhood are wrapped together, dependent on each other. When either is threatened the other is in danger.

We call to the democratic standards all who realize that in this country there can be no stability with power centralized, and whose distrust and patriotic resentment are aroused by the republican policy of degrading the States to provinces and concentrating authority and control at Washington.

Resolved, That the democratic party invokes the co-operation of all who long for the restoration of the landmarks of the constitution and whose cool reason tells them that such restoration is necessary for our freedom and safety. None but a democratic administration can maintain the respect for our fundamental laws and principles which republican administrations have been and are reasonably obliterating, which the constitution provides and which are required for the orderly conduct of the government and the protection of the people.

Resolved, That this convention indorses the principle of the nomination for office of the democratic party by primary election, open to the white democrats who are legal voters.

Resolved, That all resolutions regarding the primary be referred to the democratic State central committee, and that that body be, and hereby is, instructed to make such changes in the primary election plan as shall tend to cheapen the cost of candidacy, relating solely to the question of expense, to throw legal safeguards about primaries, and to provide that primary elections shall be held after full public notice not less than sixty nor more than ninety days before the ensuing regular election; and it is further authorized and instructed to put into effect such rules necessary to promote such results and to prepare and present at the next session of the legislature a bill to legalize and protect all primaries in every part of the State.

Resolved, further, That the State central committee be, and it is hereby, instructed to take up the party primary plan, and consider further protecting it and report their recommendations to the next State convention to be held in 1912.

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 13, 1908

THE members of the national republican convention which meets in Chicago on Tuesday next are gathering in that city but find they will have but little to do as the national committee, which met there this week, has under the direction of President Roosevelt, mapped out a plan of procedure which will be carried out to the letter. The nominee for president has already been named, the platform has been decided upon and a vice presidential candidate will be chosen before the convention meets. The machine is in proper order and when Mr. Roosevelt touches the button everything will move with the utmost precision, and like the dog at the telephone, the members will only have to sit and hear their master's voice and do their master's will.

ONE of the claims of the republican party upon the suffrages of the people is that if it be intrusted with another term of power it will reform the defects in the currency. Its own financial authorities have been pressing it to effect the reforms for many years, and it has paid no attention to them until the recent session, and all it could accomplish then was a sorry makeshift consisting of two discordant schemes tacked together. The Philadelphia Record asks: "Where is the party going to get the wisdom during the next four years that it has not acquired during the last four, or eight, or sixteen?"

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT and Secretary Taft have warned the government of Panama that fraud will not be permitted in the approaching election on the isthmus. For a republican administration in the United States to warn other governments against election frauds is ridiculous in the extreme; besides what has this government to do with the election in Panama, anyway?

A YOUNG man, son of the president of an express company, has been pardoned by President Roosevelt because it was shown that he was made a criminal by a blow on the head. He was convicted of counterfeiting. Had he been the son of an employee instead of the president of the company, it would probably have required more than a blow on his head to have secured his pardon.

ANOTHER republican Congressman, J. F. Laning, of Ohio, is in trouble and has been indicted as a result of the grand jury investigation of the failure of the Ohio Trust Company. He has been renominated, but refuses to resign, and will thus help along the election of a democratic Congress. Ohio republicans are certainly having a hard time of it this year.

DURING the month of May the total arrivals of immigrants in New York harbor amounted to 25,983 persons, against 146,588 arrivals in May, 1907. As a further sign of the time it is announced that two double-screw steamships of the line carrying passengers between Naples and New York have suspended their trips until business conditions improve.

IN the case of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Company vs. Ellington, administrator, in which the opinion was handed down by Judge Whittle in the Court of Appeals on Thursday, it was held that section 162 of the constitution of Virginia, abolishing the fellow servant doctrine as to railroads, does not apply to street car companies.

WITH the country's meat supply at low ebb and prices higher than ever before, the burning of a great Kansas City packing house, filled to its capacity, may reasonably be interpreted by the augurs as an argument for vegetarianism.

THE reduction in prices of products of the steel trust affords a hint of the enormous extent of the spoil when the monopoly was extorting full rates from American consumers behind the tariff wall.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., June 13.

The exodus of diplomatists from Washington to the Chicago convention has begun. Many went out today and others will follow tomorrow to join the ranks of those already in the west. John Barrett, director of the bureau of American republics, will leave today to look after the diplomatic fold in the wild fastnesses of Chicago. He will receive the tickets from the sergeant and distribute them. He has supplied lists of the visitors to the Chicago clubs where they will receive special attention.

James J. Hill, one of the great railroad magnates held a conference with the president today. The republican platform is supposed to have brought him to Washington.

Secretary Metcalf and Secretary Taft on the President's yacht Mayflower and many naval officers on the Montgomery and other ships of the navy clustered around a bar in the Chesapeake Bay this morning where the old monitor Florida is anchored mutely awaiting the impact of a torpedo with 240 pounds of guncotton. The ordnance vivisectionists are anxiously awaiting to see what will happen to her. If she is not entirely disabled or sunk, a new defence against torpedo attack will have been proved. It all depends whether or not the new type of bulkhead or compartment with which she is fitted will be successful. The effect of the torpedo will not be learned until she is dry-docked for repairs and observation. Admiral Evans and Naval Constructor Robinson, who accompanied the fleet to the Pacific with the board of construction, all admit that the modern battleship fleet is without defence against torpedo attack, particularly at night. The Florida test is designed as an experiment to provide against this.

Washington race men who spend their time at the New York tracks returned to the city this morning. They say it is all over and even the most sanguine expect little change in the conditions. "I didn't want to get arrested so came home," said one of them. "The game is dead."

Senator Burkett, of Nebraska, made another pilgrimage to the White House today in behalf of Gov. Sheldon's candidacy for vice president. "I bet a box of cigars yesterday that he would be nominated at Chicago," said Mr. Burkett by way of emphasis as he left the White House, "and offered to do the same thing today."

As a farewell recital in this country before departing for Germany to sing before the Kaiser, the Arion Society of Brooklyn, eighty voices strong, sang before President and Mrs. Roosevelt in the east room this afternoon. A few friends had been invited to the White House to listen.

Information of a mysterious woman in Mexico, who may be Mrs. Gunness, the central figure of the Indiana murder mystery, was received at the state department today in a dispatch from Ambassador Thompson in Mexico City, which stated that a woman answering to the description of the murderess a few days ago passed by Palenque.

News of the Day.

After deliberating for twenty-two hours the capitol trial jury at Harrisburg, Pa., today acquitted Congressman H. Burd Cassell, and architect J. M. Huston in connection with the capitol graft cases.

Unless the Yaqui Indians give up their arms and ammunition at once a war of extermination will be waged against them by Gen. Lorenzo Torres, head of 4,000 Mexican soldiers in pursuit of the rebellious Indians.

Three thousand London barmaids took advantage of the suffragettes parade today to have a demonstration of their own to protest against the licensing bill. They met at Trafalgar square and voiced their opinion in speeches, jeers and harangues.

After terrible suffering forty-four men of the crew of the whaling steamer William Baylies, of New Bedford, Mass., have been taken off the vessel. For months the Baylies have been ice-bound in the straits and was sighted by the crew of the whaler Bowhead.

Many of the largest flouring mills throughout the state of Washington are closing because of the slack export flour business. The high price of wheat is the principal factor in the crippling of the industry. Thousands of men are being thrown out of employment.

Fourteen alleged bookmakers were arrested by the police at the Gravesend race track yesterday afternoon, charged with violating the new anti-betting law. They were admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000 each by a magistrate in Brooklyn, and their cases will come up for a hearing today. Denouncing the police for having made the arrests Magistrate Voorhees, today adjourned the cases.

William H. Taft, believing he is assured of the republican presidential nomination, has mapped out his plans for the immediate future. His resignation as Secretary of War will be placed in the hands of President Roosevelt next week, and unless there is a change of programme it will become effective on July 1. Gen. Luke E. Wright, prospective Secretary of War, will be ready to take charge the day Mr. Taft steps out.

When daylight began to break yesterday morning six year-old Mary Litz looked out of her window at the pretty clubhouse of the Morristown, N. J., Field Club and wondered what had become of her mamma. Mary began to cry, and so did her sister. Then the two little brothers tumbled out of bed, awakened by the noise, and cried, too. Behind the clubhouse, in a lonely spot on the golf links, the mother of these four children lay dead. She had been murdered by an Italian barber, Frank Ferraro, who, after committing the deed, killed himself. The murderer had been in love with the woman, but she refused to marry him.

John Vines Wright, of Tennessee, the oldest living ex-member of Congress, died yesterday at his home in Washington. He also served in the Confederate Congress and the army.

Acting prosecutor Elder, of Kings county, N. Y., said today: "We will make it impossible for any person to either make or receive a bet in any form at the race tracks."

Virginia News.

The graduates in law and medicine at the University of Virginia were announced yesterday.

John W. Hawkins, railway mail clerk, of Petersburg, was convicted at Norfolk, yesterday, of stealing special delivery letters and sentenced to three years in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Charles F. Crockwell died in Berryville Thursday night, at the home of his sister, after a lingering illness of heart disease. He was born in Winchester, November 10, 1827. He is survived by one daughter.

Charles C. Virts, son of the late Joseph Virts, of Waterford, Loudoun county, and Miss Maude Smith, daughter of Joseph Smith, formerly of Staunton, were married Thursday afternoon in Waterford, by Rev. F. L. Wilson.

Declaring that its showing of assets and liabilities was satisfactory in law, Judge R. Carter Scott, in the Richmond City Circuit Court, has dissolved the injunction against the Eureka Life Insurance Company and discharged the receiver of that corporation.

Major S. W. Martin, clerk of the federal courts at Danville, has been appointed in charge of the offices of United States Circuit Courts and District Courts at Lynchburg, Charlottesville and Roanoke, in addition to the Danville office. He succeeds William McCauley, who died recently at Salem.

True bills were returned by the grand jury in the U. S. District Court, in Richmond, yesterday, against Warner Moore and Thomas L. Moore, members of the firm of Warner Moore & Co., charging them with false billing in violation of the interstate commerce act, and against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company for violation of the same act in failing to impose switching charges.

Another Fine.

Rochester, N. Y., June 13.—The Standard Oil Company today faces the possibility of a fine of $800,000 in consequence of the verdict of guilty as indicted, rendered by a jury in the United States Court here late last night. The arguments on the motion for a new trial will be heard on July 7 at Buffalo, before Judge Hazel.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Contest for Vice President.

Chicago, June 13.—There is a rumor that President Roosevelt has expressed himself in favor of the selection of James Sherman, as candidate for vice president.

The latest boom is that of Frank P. Kellogg, national committeeman from Minnesota, a "trust buster," of the administration. He took part in the prosecutions of the Standard Oil Company, which resulted in the celebrated $29,000,000 fine.

The Taft people would have undoubtedly liked to have Senator Dolliver on the ticket. But it seems that he must be ruled out of the game. It would involve too much sacrifice for him to resign his seat in the Senate and take the vice presidency. In the recent fight in Iowa between Governor Cummins and Senator Allison for the possession of the latter's place in the United States Senate Dolliver was a strong partisan and persuaded every friend he had in the State to vote and work for Allison. The Cummins faction was beaten. Now if Dolliver were to resign, Cummins could appoint his successor, and in theory the ordinary course of events he might himself look forward to succeed the veteran and enfeebled Allison in a very few years. In that event the whole State would be given over to the control of the Cummins people.

Frank H. Hitchcock will be the next chairman of the republican national committee in the opinion of the politicians assembled.

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor went into session today to formulate demands to be presented to the republican national convention. It will insist on a strong anti-injunction plank, President Gompers frankly admits, and he furthermore asserts that he will call upon the democrats at Denver to adopt the same paragraph.

In reply to the charges made by Jas. W. Van Cleave, president of the manufacturers' association, that he is a democrat, Gompers charges Van Cleave with being a "mental vacuum."

Seats in the convention hall are the scarcest thing in Chicago. They have reached the top price of $125 per, and offers of $100 are freely made.

Harry S. New, chairman of the committee, says the requests for tickets are almost double the number received prior to any former convention.

Torpedoing the Florida.

Fort Monroe, Va., June 13.—Secretary Taft and Secretary Metcalf arrived here to see the attempt to sink the monitor Florida with a Whitehead torpedo. The officials arrived on the Mayflower at sunrise and anchored off Crany Island, three quarters of a mile from the Florida, anchored in shallow water off Sewall's Point.

Hampton Roads is only slightly choppy today and the conditions for the test are considered excellent.

The torpedo will travel along a trolley wire from a float 300 yards distant and many ordnance officers predict that the Florida, though a modern craft and protected as is a battleship, will fill and sink after the tremendous explosion.

Fort Monroe, Va., June 13.—The Florida was torpedoed today, the gun cotton's crash settling her ten inches to starboard. The water tight bulkheads stood the test and the water got no farther than the compartment punctured.

The test was dramatic and spectacular in the extreme. As in time of actual war every officer and man of the Florida's crew remained aboard ship. Naval officials who superintended the test were also aboard.

The hiss of the torpedo as it plunged from the barge 300 feet away, its menacing action as it rushed forward with its destructive charge, the contact with the ship, the shock felt by those on board, the explosion akin to that of a twelve-inch gun and the shower of steel, smoke and water which followed the crash, were like an eruption of Vesuvius itself.

Only the specially constructed bulkhead compartment, twelve feet square, was penetrated by the torpedo which apparently exploded immediately upon contact. This compartment, which was forward of the boiler room, was partially filled with coal, which served, in a measure, to lessen the effect of the explosion. No damage was done to the boiler or engine rooms and the leakage into the dynamo room was not serious.

The explosion did not interfere with steam apparatus which was in action but it felled electrical equipped dummies on the bridge and in the boiler room and put a searchlight out of commission.

Although the opinions of experts differed it was declared by Chief Constructor Capps that the ships with full steam up at sea could sustain a like attack on the opposite side and still be in a condition to do battle. The vessel, though she listed to starboard nearly sixteen inches remained afloat and could have made her way back to dock had she had steam up.

Tugs towed the ship into the Norfolk navy yard where she was docked later for the inspection of Secretary Metcalf and the other observers.

Powers and Howard Pardoned.

Frankfort, Ky., June 13.—Caleb Powers, the most noted political prisoner in the history of Kentucky, together with James Howard, who was serving a life sentence for complicity in the assassination of Gov. Wm. M. Goebel, elected several years ago on the democratic ticket, have been given unconditional pardons by Gov. Augustus E. Wilson, recently inaugurated republican governor of the State.

Indianapolis, June 13.—Ex-Governor William S. Taylor, of Kentucky, wrote out this statement when told that Governor Wilson had pardoned Powers and Howard: "The pardon of Caleb Powers and James Howard is a most righteous act. Never before in the history of this country have two men suffered so much and so unjustly."

Fifteen Thousand Women Parade.

London, June 13.—London saw her greatest demonstration by suffragettes today when 15,000 women paraded from the Victoria embankment to Albert Hall, where addresses were made to as many as could crowd into the spacious auditorium. The number of women in the line far exceeded the expectation of the most sanguine suffragette, and tremendous enthusiasm was created. The suffragettes did not allow their enthusiasm to lead them afoul of the police.

Jews Killed.

Berlin, June 15.—News has reached here of a Jewish massacre at Dorbian, a Russian town near the German frontier. According to the information from Memel, a German frontier town close to Dorbian, Russians mobs attacked the ghetto in Dorbian, burned eighty houses and two synagogues, killed three Jews and injured twenty eight. The mob was made up of hundreds of armed Russians, and though the Jews had long been the objects of bitter hatred, the attack was wholly unexpected. They were mercilessly driven from their homes. Not until practically the whole ghetto had been destroyed was the fury of the Russians abated. Men, women and children suffered alike, and today there are 600 homeless Jews in the town. The police made no effort to check the mob.

Awaiting Her Death.

Passaic, N. J., June 13.—Impatient for death, which she says "an angel of the Lord" has warned her will come before sunrise tomorrow, Mrs. Anna Kiselcia is today awaiting her end in a hospital here. "The Lord has called me home," she said today, and though apparently quite sane on any other subject she will not be moved from her conviction. Mrs. Kiselcia, who since the death of her husband has been eminently devout, informed the neighbors of her summons by the death angel a week ago and asked Rev. Dr. Haitinger to say masses for her soul. Fearing suicide, the police had the woman committed to the hospital. Mrs. Kiselcia denies any thought of suicide.

Supplemented Suit.

New York, June 13.—Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's rumored settlement of $10,000,000 with his wife is to be supplemented by damages of $50,000 for the alienation of the affections of Mrs. Mary Agnes Ruiz, if Antonio A. Ruiz, the Cuban diplomat, husband of the woman, can collect the claim through the courts, it is said. Mr. Ruiz is quoted today as saying he will resign from the Cuban legation to start the suit.

Killed Children, Husband and Herself.

Cadillac, Mich., June 13.—Mrs. Daniel Cooper, aged 39, and insane, killed her six children, her husband and committed suicide at her home here today. She used a revolver, shooting her victims down as fast as she could reload.

Shamrock IV Beaten.

London, June 13.—Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV was badly beaten in a triangular race with White Heather and Brynhild from Nore to Deal today. White Heather easily won with Brynhild second. The possible cup challenger was a bad last. The result has caused a loss of faith among English yachtmen in the new Shamrock's design, many favoring the White Heather type.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 13.—There was another slump in the market in the early part of the first hour. Shortly after the opening prices of the leading issues declined fractionally below the lowest range reached on Friday. Stocks generally sustained fractional losses in the early trading, but the movement ended abruptly and in the last half of the hour the tone became firm and nearly all the losses were recovered. The market closed slightly stronger, most of the stocks traded in showing fractional gains.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Frank H. Hitchcock, the Taft manager, issued an official statement last night, in which he declared that the Taft situation, now that the national committee has completed its labors, is as follows:

Instructed for Taft, 513; declared for Taft, 155; indorsed for Taft, 36. Total, 704. The allies have 227 votes and there are 49 doubtful.

Three weeks ago Hitchcock stated that there would be 517 instructed Taft delegates to the convention.

Taft won 18 of the contested delegates from Virginia, but on the admission that colored men have been ruled out of the Danville convention two Taft delegates were accepted instead of the Taft men.

Despite the assurances given out by the Taft managers in the past few days that the war secretary would get the presidential nomination on the first ballot at the national convention, next week, the "Allies" declared last night that they will fight to the bitter end to hold out against the nomination and have the votes to do it. They also claim that overtures have been made to them by the Taft managers for a compromise, but that in view of conditions, they say, there can be no compromise; that the fight will be carried into the committee of credentials, and there threshed out.

SUICIDE OF A BRICKLAYER.

In view of more than a 100 bathers and many automobilists, G. A. Goodrich, sixty years old, yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock jumped from the seawall surrounding the tidal basin at Washington and was drowned.

Goodrich who was a bricklayer, left a note in which he said he was tired of living, and as he could not pay his board bill, thought he might as well end it all. The body was recovered by the police boat Major Sylvester.

Before taking the fatal leap Goodrich, took off his vest, hat, and coat. These were found on the seawall about 200 yards northeast of the bathing beach. The man appeared in the neighborhood about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. After watching the bathers, he strolled over to the bathouse and tried to borrow a boat. He then walked to the seawall and leaped into the water.

[COMMUNICATED.

As an eye-witness to the management of the fire at Jameson's Studio, I want to say that the volunteers under the lead of the efficient chief, George W. Pettey, worked more like men receiving $100 per month for their services than those who labor for love and are oftentimes sneered at when asking for something to enliven interest in the fire department. It is customary in this life to wait till a man dies to speak of his virtues, but the fireman prefers a little "italy" while he lives and not so much "epitafy" when he's dead. The entire business population of this block should thank the fire department for its efficient work. H.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.

What is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days,
Then heaven tries the earth, if it be in tune,
And over its heart its warm ear lays.

So sings the poet Lowell and such a thought must have come to the large number that gathered in Lannon's Opera House yesterday to witness the fortieth annual commencement exercises of St. Mary's Academy—a school that for the past ten years has been steadily growing in favor and popularity until today it counts among its two hundred and fifty pupils representatives of the best families of this city and neighboring towns. The day was surely a perfect one, and the children, always lovely in their snowy white, seemed more richly dowered than usual with the gifts for which southern womanhood is noted—grace and beauty—that tell their own tale of the culture of the years.

Promptly at 3:30 the curtain went up on the stage prettily decorated with ferns, palms and countless bouquets of beautiful flowers presented to the fair graduates who occupied seats on the stage during the greater part of the programme. The opening number was a chorus, accompanied by Sallie Patterson and Margaret Daly on the piano and Alma Deslo and Nancy Groh on violins. It was an effective introduction to the well rendered programme. "Charge of the Hussars" with Emma Fant, Teresa Waters, Ruth Gerlacher and Madelene Byrne at two pianos gave opportunity for musical interpretation for which they were ably qualified.

Nancy Katherine Groh, of this city, was the salutatorian of her class and her subject, "Victoriae Salutamus" (We who are about to live salute you) was a proof of Miss Groh's ability along literary lines. In charming verse which she recited with ease and grace she bade a warm welcome to all who had gathered to witness the graduation of the class of 1908.

A splendid musical number, "Hungarian Dance No. 2," was ably executed by Katherine Brill, Hazel Ale, Maude Allensworth and Mildred Hellmuth. The wee tots then appeared on the stage and as usual, proved the favorites. They were little milkmaids who, keeping time to the sweet accompaniment of music with their milking pails, went through an action song with the charm of childhood that is always entertaining. They merited and received the encouragement of hearty applause.

"Lutspiel Overture" played by Lola Ashton, Bernadette Allen, Agnes Gilroy and Ida Crilly was a sprightly number that gave evidence of musical talent carefully cultivated. The work done at St. Mary's along physical culture lines was exemplified in two drills—the juniors with dumb bells and the seniors with wands. Both were executed, as Rev. Father Payne said in his closing remarks, with a precision and nicety of movement that West Point or Annapolis students could not surpass.

Miss Bernadette Allen, of Washington, chose for her subject "The Admiral's Lesson" which was suggested by the reading of Joaquin Miller's noted poem, "Columbus." It was a splendid dissertation on the great lesson of perseverance taught by America's discoverer, and as Miss Allen had done her subject justice with her pen, so, too, her manner of delivery was all that the most critical could desire. Miss Allen has spent six years at St. Mary's as a boarder and she was yesterday presented with a beautiful gold medal, the gift of a friend, as a reward for perfect deportment during that period.

Wagner's well known "Tannhauser March" was ably executed by the talented musicians, Helen Corbett, Margaret Daly, Verna Bittle and Bertha Nugent, and the audience showed their appreciation.

Miss Agnes Gilroy, of this city, was the class poet and her poem, "The Day is Done," proved her deserving of the honor. It was a poetical gem written in iambic pentameter measure and read with feeling and expression that made it one of the best numbers of the afternoon.

Gertrude Reed and Katherine Waller, two musicians of great promise, then rendered Liszt's "Sorries de Vienne" in a manner that gave evidence of a high degree of musical talent.

Miss Ella Hill of this city was valedictorian, and her subject, music, "The Language of the Soul," was a timely one, as she yesterday proved herself deserving of the beautiful gold medal presented to her as a graduate in the music course. That Miss Hill is a passionate lover of music was evidenced by her poem, written in blank verse, interspersed with charming lyrics, which she recited in a manner that proved her also the possessor of much elocutionary talent.

The final chorus, "The Waves of the Danube," was a difficult one that gave ample opportunity for the display of the work done in voice culture. The young vocalists did themselves justice and made the number an exceptionally fine one.

The two graduates in instrumental music, Ella Hill and Sallie Patterson, impressively interpreted Liszt's celebrated "Rhapsodie No. 14" in a manner that proved them masters of the delightful art of translating soul feelings into music. Both graduates are true artists and the round of applause which rewarded their efforts and which also rose when they received their medals showed the audience was an appreciative one.

Rev. Father Payne, of Clifton Forge, made the commencement address, which was thoughtful and encouraging. He spoke of the good work being done in Alexandria by St. Mary's Academy and the Sisters to whom he paid a glowing tribute; then touched upon the trinity of forces necessary to a complete education—namely, the culture of the body, mind and heart which, he said, was so splendidly exemplified as being carried on at St. Mary's by the excellent programme. His closing words were a special exhortation to the class of 1908 for loyalty to their alma mater and they will be remembered as long as thoughts of school days linger in their hearts and minds. During his remarks and at their close the reverend speaker was warmly applauded.

The following awards were then conferred:

OFF FOR CHICAGO.

Messrs. Joseph L. Crupper, of this city, and Samuel Dienrr, of Culpeper, left today for Chicago as delegates from the Eighth district to the national republican convention. It is generally known that Mr. Crupper is a consistent republican, but it is wondered at that he would make the trip, which entails a great deal of expense and loss of time from his business, but being a young man it may be possible he is keeping actively in line with his party in order to widen his scope of influence in this city and state. He was a Taft man from the beginning, and no doubt if Mr. Taft is elected he will not be unmindful of the attitude of Mr. Crupper. It will be remembered that there are quite a number of good places in this city at the disposal of the favored few if the republican nominee is elected, one of which is the postmastership. There are already three candidates for the position—Messrs. Frank T. Evans, J. Armstead Eggborn and W. H. P. Kelly. It is presumed that the present postmaster, Mr. Thomas F. Burroughs, may desire to succeed himself. The attitude of Mr. Crupper is a matter which worries the aspirants, and either of them, of course, would like to gain favor with their leader. It is not known what position Mr. Crupper may seek in case of the election of Mr. Taft, and it is thought that his old position—that of postmaster—which he filled so satisfactorily—may be offered him. It is generally understood, though, that he is aiming at higher game if he enters the government service at all. Being a successful lumber merchant it is hardly probable that any small office would appeal to his fancy.

DEATH OF REV. DR. SPRIGG.

Rev. Dr. D. F. Sprigg, for many years rector of Grace Church in this city, died in Washington yesterday. The deceased was in his 83d year, having been born in Hagerstown, Md., October 27, 1825. Over half a century ago Mr. Sprigg became rector of Grace Church in this city and editor of the Southern Churchman, at that time published in the Alexandria Gazette office. At the outbreak of the civil war he went south, and at the close of the conflict returned to this city and resumed the publication of the Churchman, having also renewed the pastoral duties of Grace Church. In the spring of 1879 he resigned as rector of Grace Church and assumed the pastorate of the Moore Memorial Church, in Richmond, in which city the Churchman has since been published. A few years later he disposed of his interest in the paper and removed to Washington in which city he had since resided. While not in charge of a church, he was ever active in going from point to point in Washington endeavoring to interest all he encountered in the faith he held throughout life. Mr. Sprigg was one of the most popular ministers ever stationed in Alexandria, not only among the members of his own flock, as he was equally esteemed by people of all denominations. He was ever ready to aid those struggling against adverse fortune, and his quiet acts, by which he materially aided the distressed, will long be remembered. Mr. Sprigg leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Perry, of Washington. The interment took place this afternoon at Greenmount, Baltimore.

SHOT IN THE HIP.

J. H. McGrath was conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital last night with a bullet in his hip, he having been shot at Culpeper by a brakeman of the Southern Railway. McGrath, it seems, had boarded a train and refused to get off when requested to do so by the brakeman. Trouble between the two men followed which resulted in the shooting. Dr. Rixey, after having rendered surgical aid, sent McGrath to the hospital.

FIRE IN A STUDIO.

About 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening, while King street was thronged with people, smoke was seen coming from Mr. A. L. Jameson's studio over the dry goods store of the Lozano Company, on the north side of King street, between Royal and Pitt. The smoke increased in volume and in almost less time than it takes to tell it huge clouds were emerging from the windows and eaves of the building. An alarm was sounded and by the time the crowd gathered in front of the building the fire department was on the ground and the engines at work. Ladders were run up to the second story and when the windows had been broken the flames suddenly filled the upper rooms. Four stream of water, however, soon checked the progress of the fire and in a few minutes' time it was under control and virtually extinguished.

The building is owned by George J. Haines, of Accotink, Fairfax county, and, including fixtures, is insured for $5,500. The damage to the building is variously estimated but this cannot at present be accurately approximated.

The Lozano Dry Goods Company, of which Mrs. Sallie P. Lozano is the principal owner place the value of their stock at about $20,000. The insurance will cover all loss the contents, have suffered by water.

Mr. Jameson, the photographer, says his loss will be heavy. He carries $500 insurance.

During the fire Fireman Wm. Craven, of the Columbia Company, stepped from the engine at the corner of King and Pitt streets and was bitten on the leg by a dog. While breaking down a door leading into the studio Edward Petty, nephew of Fire Chief Petty, sustained an ugly cut on the left hand by glass. Both received surgical attention.

The fire was confined to the photograph gallery, which was virtually gutted.

It was at first supposed that the fire was caused by defective electric wiring, but this was shown to be erroneous from the fact that the electric current was cut off from the building by Mr. Jameson at 6 o'clock. It was also suggested that chemical combustion in the gallery may have caused the blaze.

The fire evidently orginated in the dressing room of the studio, as the blaze seemed to be confined to that part when the firemen entered.

The site upon which the building stands has been the scene of two destructive conflagations. In the early part of 1862 fire destroyed the old Sarepta Hall and several other buildings on the west, including a bank and bookstore which stood upon the site of the building which was on fire last night. In February, 1865, a large frame structure used as a theatre, which had been built on the site of old Sarepta Hall, was burned together with two frame houses which stood on the site of the building now occupied by the Lozano Company. This store was erected by the late George E. French a few years later.

The promptness of the fire department and the alacrity with which the firemen worked was most favorably commented upon by all. Within fifteen minutes from the time the alarm was given the flames had been extinguished. Chief Pettey has returned his thanks to his men for their good service.

DEATH OF F. C. BANGS.

Mr. Frank C. Banks, a native of this city, and for many years one of the most prominent and popular actors on the American stage, died at Atlantic City on Thursday. The deceased was 72 years old. He passed his boyhood days in the city of his birth, but in early manhood he developed histrionic abilities and soon became a prominent actor. He was cotemporaneous with Forrest, Boothe, Barrett and others, having been on the stage for half a century, during which time he had appeared in the principal cities of the country and he enjoyed a national reputation. Comparatively few of the Alexandrians now living were acquainted with Frank Bangs. At intervals of two or three years it was his wont to revisit his old home and the scenes of his youth. He was especially fond of entering the frame house on the east side of Fairfax street, one door north of Wilkes, where he passed the sunny days of his youth. During the civil war he was a soldier in the Confederate army.

LAWN FETE.

The moonlight lawn fete given at the Golf Club last night was one of the most attractive affairs ever given at the club. The ladies in charge were Mrs. George S. French, Mrs. Laurence Stabler, Miss Mary Glenn Uhler, Miss Rebecca Uhler and Miss Clarence Snowden. They were assisted by Misses Esther Green, Nellie Uhler, Eliza Douglas, Cora Jones, Christina Kemper, Catherine Waller and Polly Green, who made charming waitresses. The house and grove were softly lighted by Japanese lanterns and the hill, which was brilliant with moonlight, was dotted with groups and couples. The older people thronged the porches and reception room, where several exciting games of cards were played.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the Methodist Protestant Sunday school will have their annual Children's Day exercises in the auditorium of the church. An elaborate programme has been prepared for the occasion. The floral decorations, which are in charge of a committee of ladies, promise to be very elaborate.

Children's services will be celebrated in Trinity M. E. Church at 8 p. m.

In the First Baptist Church tomorrow Rev. Dr. Menefee, D. D., of Washington, will preach a special sermon to the children. At 8 p. m. the children will have their celebration.

CONVENTION ADJOURNS.

The forty-second annual session of the Sunday school convention of the Baltimore Conference of the M. E Church South has closed. Judge Locke Walton, of Woodstock, Va., was elected president, and M. N. Millan, of Washington, D. C., secretary. The number of other positions are to be filled by appointment. The convention did not decide upon the next place of meeting. The sessions have been pleasant and interesting throughout, and there has been a large attendance of Alexandrians.

DEATH OF SAMUEL DREIFUS.

Mr. Samuel Dreifus, son of Mr. Julius Dreifus, of this city, died in Washington yesterday. The deceased was 42 years old. He leaves a widow and several children. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

JUDGMENT REVERSED.

The Court of Appeals has reversed the judgment of the Circuit Court for Alexandria county in the case of Misses Sarah and Mary Swan against the Washington Southern Railway Company. The action of the court sets aside the report of the commissioners and remands the case for further proceedings. The suit involves the ownership of a strip of ground at Four-mile-run, over which all northbound trains must pass. Some time ago commissioners appointed by the Circuit Court condemned the strip and awarded the Misses Swan $5,600, from which an appeal was taken. Charles I. Simms, of Alexandria county, represented the Misses Swan. Col. F. L. Smith, of this city, and Messrs. Carter and Leake, of Richmond, represented the railway company.

RED MEN.

At the regular meeting of Osceola Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, held at their wigwam on the second sleep, hot moon, the following chiefs were elected for the ensuing term. Sachem, A. D. Deeton; senior sagamore, Fred Mudd; junior sagamore, R. A. Garrett; prophet sagamore, T. J. Lightfoot; chief of records, Chas. Nagel; collector of wampum, E. F. Downham; keeper of wampum, Fred Kaus; trustee for 18 months, A. J. Butcher. The chiefs will be installed on the second sleep, buck moon, at the 8th run. After the installation there will be a social session.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the meeting last night of Potomac Lodge, No. 38, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Norman Williamson, past grand; W. F. Risdon, noble grand; W. H. Yates, vice grand; W. A. Conway, recording secretary; L. M. Davis, treasurer; William E. Latham, financial secretary; Edgar Lyles, chaplain. The new officers will be installed at the first meeting in July.

BONDS EXCHANGED.

Yesterday the auditor received acceptances for bond exchanges amounting to fifty-five thousand and two hundred dollars. Of this $55,200 there was brought to the auditor's office by the owners $6,600; received by mail $1,500, and handed in by the cashier of one of the national banks acceptances to the amount of $47,100, which that officer had secured from eight holders of the bonds of 1879. All of this $55,200 is held in Alexandria.

DISTRICT COMMITTEE.

As stated in the Gazette of that day the delegates of the Eighth district at Roanoke, on Thursday, named Messrs. George Shackelford, of Orange; Raleigh T. Green, of Culpeper; G. L. Boothe, of Alexandria; R. A. McIntyre, of Warrenton and P. W. Garrett, of Loudoun, members of the State committee. Mr. McIntyre takes the place of Mr. Grenville Gaines, of Warrenton and Mr. Garrett that of Mr. T. H. Lion, of Prince William.

Stomach Troubles.

Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One man who had spent over two thousand dollars for medicine and treatment was cured by a few boxes of these tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard F. Gibson.

ANOTHER MONSTER.

The British admiralty, having eclipsed the Dreadnought class of battleships by the St. Vincent, will start in September to eclipse the latter, laying down at Portsmouth a new leviathan, with heavier armament and greater displacement. The St. Vincent, which will be launched in October, 1909, is of 19,250 tons and cost about $9,500,000. The new battleship will probably be of 21,000 tons and will cost $11,250,000. She is intended to be completed for sea in 18 months after her keel is laid.

It is stated she will have two novel and important features. Instead of 12-inchers, which are now the largest guns used in the fleet, she will mount weapons of the new 13.5 type, which have been for some time the subject of experiment. The other feature will be her equipment with gas engines, by using which no smoke will be made, and therefore the new ship will have no funnels. It is recalled that Mr. McKechnie, of Vickers' Sonns & Maxim, announced some time ago that that firm had developed the gas engine to such a stage that it could be employed on a warship. The admiralty engineers have since been considering this engine, and have apparently adopted it.

A BOY'S CRUEL ACT.

While Miss Catharine McCormick, thirty-eight years old, was sitting on a bench in Rose Hill Park, near Fordham station, New York, yesterday afternoon, several persons saw a half-grown boy slip up behind her with a big bundle of newspapers in his two hands. The boy piled the papers in a heap underneath and behind the woman, and before anybody divined his purpose he had touched a match to the heap and was running away. As the flame sprang up Miss McCormick's light summer gown ignited. With a scream she leaped to her feet and stumbled wildly across the lawn, tearing at her garments with her hands. Before she had gone twenty feet she fell, with her hair ablaze and her clothing dropping from her in charred wisps. The woman is dying at the Fordham Hospital.
